20. Undisputed except as to the term "ensure," on the grounds that despite its efforts vel non, Australian Gold does not successfully "ensure" the result claimed: See Plaintiff's Rule 56.1 Statement at ¶¶ 44, 64, 68.
21. Undisputed.
22. Undisputed.
23. Undisputed.
24. Undisputed that Australian Gold "takes steps to . . . police[] the sale of its products on the Internet" but disputed as to the claim that it does so for the sole purpose, as implied, of maintaining the "reputation and integrity of its tanning products": See Plaintiff's Rule 56.1 Statement at ¶¶ 9, 29, 30, 35, 44.

33. Disputed on the ground that the term "Authorized Dealer of Australian Gold's tanning product" is not a fact but is a legal characterization of issues at the heart of this case, because there is no contractual or other legal definition of an "Authorized Dealer" that binds, limits or in any other way applies to plaintiff.

63. Disputed: The deposition testimony referred to in ¶ 63 does not support the supposed fact of consumer confusion. See also Plaintiff's Rule 56.1 Statement at ¶ 30.

64. Disputed on the ground that the phrase "authorized to sell such products" and the phrase "Australian Gold prohibits the sale" are not facts but are legal characterizations of issues at the heart of this case, because there are no contractual or other legal definition of "authority" or "prohibition" that bind, limit or in any other way apply to plaintiff.
